MISSION

Chi Institute is dedicated to providing quality education to veterinarians and active veterinary students in Traditional Chinese Veterinary Medicine (TCVM) through distance learning and on-site lab practice to meet the needs of the global veterinary community.

PROGRAM OUTCOMES

The MS-TCVM program is designed for veterinarians and veterinary students with a bachelor's degree who would like to pursue an integrative diagnostic and treatment approach to enhance the medical care of animals. The objectives of the MS-TCVM are to:

- Create and apply a veterinary acupuncture treatment plan for individual animals
- Develop a Traditional Chinese Veterinary Medicine diagnosis and herbal treatment for individual animals
- Develop a Traditional Chinese Veterinary food therapy plan for individual animals
- Develop a Traditional Chinese Veterinary Tui-na therapy plan for individual animals
- Master Traditional Chinese Veterinary Medicine through research
