

Are you seeking a TCVM approach for Geriatric and Renal Diseases?

One More Step for Yourself One More Option for Your Patients

Dr. Huisheng Xie was discussing a real case with students in the Wet-lab.

The Chi Institute provides a five-module certified Veterinary Herbal Medicine program for veterinarians who are willing to integrate acupuncture with herbal medicine in their daily practice for the best result. Each module features tongue and pulse diagnosis, real case studies (5-hour wet lab), a TCVM approach to Western diseases, advanced TCVM principles and herbal studies.

You may select any module without regard to sequence. Upon successful completion of the five modules and other requirements, you will be awarded a diploma of Certified TCVM Practitioner and Herbolgicist from the Chi Institute and China National Society of TCVM.
