

Application for Admission

MS-Traditional Chinese Veterinary Medicine

Part I: Admissions Requirements

To be admitted to the Chi Institute of Traditional Chinese Veterinary Medicine's MS-TCVM program, you must be a licensed veterinarian or a veterinary student with a bachelor's degree from an accredited school. Final admission decision is granted only after all of the following admission requirements have been met.

- Application for admission
- $120 application fee
To pay this fee online, please visit <http://www.tcvm.com/MastersDegree/EnrollNow.aspx>
- Photocopy of Driver's License or Passport
- Official transcripts* of your earned Doctor of Veterinary Medicine (DVM) or equivalent, or official transcripts of your earned bachelor's degree and a photocopy of your current veterinary school identification;
*Transcripts must be sent directly from your university to the Chi Institute of Traditional Chinese Veterinary Medicine.
- One Letter of recommendation from a peer, employer, or previous professor

International Applicants must also submit the following:

Prospective students whose native language is not English and have not earned a degree from an appropriately accredited institution where English is the principle language of instruction must demonstrate English proficiency by submitting one of the following:

- Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL), minimum score: 530 (paper-based) or 71 (internet based) OR;
- International English Language Test (IELTS), minimum score: 6.5 OR;
- Pearson Test of English Academic Score Report, minimum score 50

In addition, if your university can not provide official transcripts in English, you must have your transcripts evaluated and/or translated by a NACES recognized third party organization. Please see NACES.org for a complete list of approved organizations.

International applicants may be exempt* from the above if:

- 1) the applicant has earned a bachelor's degree or higher from an institution in an English-speaking country, or
- 2) if the applicant is a citizen of an English-speaking country.

*Please contact the student administration office to verify qualifications for exemption
